The Watch Factory club has finally scored a victory. They did it at Springfield yesterday afternoon, defeating the Quincy club by a score of 10 to 6.

A FIRST-WARDER informs our reporter that "D. R. Alexander will put a steam whistle on top of his sock shop." The more whistles the livelier things will be for the nervous neighbors.

PATRONIZE Niedermeyer on the mound. He keeps a full line of staple and family groceries.

YESTERDAY Constable Weissel struck a bargain. He gave W. H. Shorb $35 for his piano box buggy, and $2.50 for a light set of harness. Small speculators say this transfer was a real bargain for the Constable, and a better trade than could be made in options in a bucket-shop.

The premium pianos on sale in Decatur are those justly celebrated Haines Bros' instruments that may be had only at C. B. Prescott's music parlor. Prescott's terms are easy—prices low.

We learn from the Danville Parish Register that Mr. W. J. Quinlan, of this city, has given $2,000 in cash to the Endowment Fund of the Springfield Episcopal diocese. This is a substantial contribution for a worthy object.

Mr. J. MARSH, Bank of Toronto, Ont., writes: "Biliousness and dyspepsia seem to have grown up with me; having been a sufferer for years, I have tried many remedies, but with no lasting result until I used your Burdock Blood Bitters. They have been truly a blessing to me, and I cannot speak too highly of them. Price $1, trial size 10 cents."

Miss ANNA TUFT, 45 Harrison St., Chicago, says: "Brown's Iron Bitters completely cured me of nervousness, after suffering for years."

The Decatur Club, organized to promote the social and business interests of the city, was incorporated under the laws of Illinois, with a capital stock of $3,000. The incorporators are Messrs. J. E. Bering, B. K. Durfee, W. H. Linn, S. J. Bumstead and E. P. Vail. Officers of the Club will soon be elected, and as soon as possible club rooms will be selected and fitted up in grand style. The members of the Club have been looking about for some weeks for suitable rooms, but thus far they have failed to find any. Those over the post office are considered large enough for the use of the present membership, but they want quarters that will answer for a term of ten years at least.

It was another barn on fire that caused an alarm to be sounded first by the Shol-labarger steam whistle and next by the fire bells, last night, at about 11 o'clock. It was the property of Mr. Charles Adder-ley, on the alley at the rear of the Adder-ley grocery store, on North Water street, and was probably set on fire accidentally by one or more smoking tramps who had crawled into the hay mow to sleep over night. The firemen arrived at the scene promptly and liberal doses of water soon squelched the flames which, for a time, lit up that part of the city brilliantly and attracted a large crowd of people. The horse in the barn was taken out, and ad-joining barns were saved from destruction through the efforts of the firemen. The barn was insured for $50 in the Common-wealth Mutual Insurance Co.

The Lenhardt Suicide.
The Republican yesterday contained a statement of the suicide of Philip Lenhardt, north of Mt. Pleasant. The Lin-coln Journal contains the following ad-ditional particulars of the affair: "Deceased's name was Philip Lenhardt, age 26, residence in Chester township, on the Hinrichsen place. A week or so ago one of his horses was kicked and disabled. Wednesday a like injury befel another, which caused him to become despondent. Last evening he began crying, and told his bride of a few months that he was going to be killed. He held a certificate of deposit on Dustin's bank and a note for a small amount, both of which he as-signed to his wife. His wife became alarmed and sent for her parents. On their arrival a search was made for him, and in a tool house suspended from a cross beam was his lifeless body, not yet cold. A half-inch rope was used, and a bench on the side of the house gave him the desired fall. The wife and friends are in deep mourning over his tragic death. The coroner's jury returned a verdict according to the above facts."

The tile factory at Kenney, of which Dr. A. J. Wallace and Mr. T. C. Lundy, of Decatur, are owners, has been improved materially this spring. There are three large kilns at this factory, and the firm is now ready to supply the best of tile in large or small quantities.

The Bramble Lock Company.
Very soon the manufacture of the celebrated Bramble locks will commence at Terre Haute. The Express of that city says: "The Bramble Lock Company, of Indiana, has been incorporated under state laws. The capital stock is $20,000, and the directors are Robert G. Hervey, John H. Berry, Frank McKean, Crawford Fairbanks and Ray T. Jenckes. The company proposes to open an establish-ment here for the manufacture of a vari-ety of padlocks and door locks patented by W. H. Bramble, of Decatur, Ill., the inventor of the Yale lock, now in common use."

This subject of Prof. Black's sermon to-night at the Christian church will be "Deceptive Influence, or Things that Vanish." The discourse last evening on "Faith" was heard by a good-sized con-gregation. Hear the Professor this even-ing.

DECATUR ladies who use the needle will be delighted to learn that a sewing ma-chine for working button holes in shirts, cuffs, collars and undergarments has been produced by Mr. Daniel Mills, a well known Philadelphia inventor. It is said to do the work in as good style and as durably as the same can be done by hand, and is therefore another valuable addition to labor-saving machinery. A company of capitalists will at once be organized for the manufacture of the machine.

Removal.
Dr. S. McBride has removed his office to his residence, on the corner of North and Water streets, first house west of the Baptist church.

"THE LYMAN," advertised on our first page, by Close, Griewold & Co., is one of the most popular among the many vapor stoves now on the market, and a single glance at it will suffice to show that it combines many fine points, and that it will fully meet the needs of the house-wife. The weather is a little too cool yet to make the matter of gasoline stoves specially interesting, but summer will come "by and by," and you might as well be thinking of it now.

The members of the Decatur Rescue running team met at headquarters last night, and decided to go into the training harness and get ready for the prize tour-nament at Waterloo, Iowa, next month. In the meantime parties interested will investigate the manner in which the pro-posed tourney is to be conducted and acquaint themselves with the plans by which the prizes are to be awarded. The Rescuers, if they go to Waterloo, will see that they don't have another Muscatine experience.

Wm. L. HAMMER, Sec'y.

A FURST of over $2,000 has been raised in Jacksonville, with which to bore for coal. A few years ago they bored about 500 feet without finding anything to re-ward their search, but the enterprising citizens appear not to be discouraged.

NEW OFFICERS ELECTED.

Closing Proceedings of the Annual Meet-ing of the Dental Society.

The 19th annual session of the Illinois State Dental Society reached an adjournment to-day, and those members who did not get away on the noon trains will leave this evening. It was voted to hold the 1884 meeting at Springfield, on the second Tuesday in May of that year.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.
The following new officers of the society were elected this forenoon:
President—Edmund Noyes, of Chicago.
Vice President—H. H. Townsend, of Pontiac.

Secretary—J. W. Wassall, of Chicago.
Asst. Sec'y.—W. H. Taggart, of Free-port.

Treasurer—J. Campbell, of Bloomington.

Librarian—W. B. Woodward, of Peoria.
Executive Committee—M. H. Patton, Springfield; C. R. Taylor, Streator; C. R. Dwight, Danville.

Board of Examiners—T. L. Gilmer, Quincy; K. B. Davis, Springfield; E. D. Swain, Chicago.

Publication Committee—J. W. Wassall, Chicago; E. D. Swain, Chicago.

Committee on Infraction of the Code of Ethics—R. Neal Lawrence, Lincoln; J. W. Cormany, Mt. Carroll, and C. P. Pruyne, Chicago.

The new president, Dr. Noyes, was duly installed. He delivered a thankful ad-dress for the honor conferred upon him.

Yesterday afternoon several papers were read and discussed, and last even-ing in the presence of the members of the society and a number of ladies Dr. J. J. H. Patrick, of Belleville, read an eloquent essay on "Nature and Art." The Doctor dug deep into the wonderful works of nature in various forms, and advanced some original ideas on the subject which is so mysterious and attractive to stu-dents, scientists and theologians in par-ticular. When the Doctor struck the second branch of his subject he was per-fectly at home, and was strong in his praise of science and its advancement, especially in its relation to dentistry. The scholarly gentleman was generously applauded, and at the close was tendered a unanimous vote of thanks.

DR. BLACK CANTED.
A massive gold-headed ebony cane was presented to Dr. Black, of Jacksonville, as a token of the high esteem in which he is held by the members of the state soci-ety. The beautiful gift was a surprise, the presentation speech, which was the prettiest and most touching we ever heard, being made by Dr. Bingham, who spoke extemporaneously. The recipient was completely surprised, but managed to give expression to the feelings of thanks that filled his heart.

The Military Event.
Sheriff Foster, Captain of the Guards, furnishes us with a copy of the Daily American, of Nashville, Tenn., where the grand military competitive drills for prizes will take place on May 21st to 26th, inclusive. The American contains an article over two columns in length con-cerning the event, and inasmuch as many Decatur soldiers have about completed arrangements to go to Nashville, we give the following extract from the paper before us:

PRIZES—PRIZE FOR ALL COMPETITORS.
Infantry.
First prize $4,000
Second prize 1,000
Third prize 500

Artillery.
First prize $2,000
Second prize 500

Cavalry.
First prize $2,000
Second prize 500

Special prize of $500.
First prize $1,000
Second prize 500

The judges will be United States army offi-cers.

A good many companies and military organ-izations have expressed a willingness to be present as witnesses of the contest. The au-thorities have determined that all companies who wish to come will be quartered in tents at the expense of the government, and have all the privileges of competing companies, they only being re-quired to purchase the uniform, the accoutrements, and the necessary camp du-rant. No entrance fee to the grounds will be charged any of the military.

Companies B, C, F, and I, Illinois National Guard, Fifth Regiment, will visit Nashville.

A Good Hotel.
The St. Nicholas hotel at Decatur, under the management of Charles Laux, is a credit to that city. We have this state-ment advisedly and with due gratitude. For any man who keeps a good hotel in the center of the state is an exception and ought to have a monument. Most of them are the right hand side to dyspepsia and the friends of indigestion. Illinois is worse off in this particular than almost any other spot in the universe, unless it is Indiana.—Peoria Journal.

The cartoon Comedy.
The Omaha Bee contained the follow-ing mention on Feb. 18th, of the comedy combination which is to appear here on Monday evening next:

"The 'Karl' company closed a very suc-cessful engagement at the opera house on Saturday evening. Everybody was pleas-ed with the entertainment given by this excellent company, and should they favor with another visit they will surely draw crowded houses. The picture pre-sented in the picnic scene when the child, the handsome dog and the monkey are introduced, was universally commented upon as one of the prettiest things ever seen on our stage. Mr. Gardner is very clever indeed, his dialect and specialties being among the best we have ever listened to. His 'business' is a refined, quiet style, much like 'Joe Jefferson,' and all of his work is of a high order."

Admission, 35, 50 and 75 cents.

Attention is called to the fact that the Sabbath school teachers' meeting will be held at the Y. M. C. A. rooms on Sat-urday afternoon at 4 o'clock, and all inter-ested are urged to be present to study and talk about next Sunday's lesson. The lesson will be found in Acts xi, 19th to 30th verses inclusive.

Notice—A Change.
The Firemen's festival will be changed from the 17th, 18th and 19th of May to the 31st of May and 1st and 2d of June, because of the coming of Benson, who will lecture at the tabernacle, on tem-perature, the 19th and 20th.

Hard Trials at Taylorville.

The condition of things at Taylorville is not very bright for those who wish to deal out liquor. The town went license by a majority of five votes on April 17th, after a reign of five years of no license. The Journal, in speaking of the first meeting of the new council at Taylorville, says: "The dram shop ordinance adopted by the city council on Monday night, fixes the license fee at one thousand dol-lars per annum. It prohibits the use of screens and frosted windows. It also for-bids the use of billiard tables and all sorts of games in or about the building where the dram shop is kept. It prohibits the loading of inebriates and minors about the saloon, and places numerous other restrictions on the traffic. The ordinance is altogether a very stringent one and has caused considerable dissatisfaction in the ranks of the license party. It is claimed that it was passed in the interest of a few wealthy men who want to run saloons here and who wish to have a monopoly of the trade."

Lincoln Haystack: On last Thursday Mr. A. H. Mills, now of Decatur, sold his property in this city, located in Parks' addition, to Mr. T. F. L. Rautenberg for $2,200. This was quite a bargain. Mr. Rautenberg will not take possession for some time yet.

P. A. Miller visited Tolono yesterday in the interest of the Decatur paper ware-house, returning home last evening. He says a grain commission merchant, W. H. Morgan, at Tolono yesterday had his pocket-book, containing $240 in cash and two $1,000 notes, stolen. The thief, who must have been a slick one, got away.
